

FACULTY OPENINGS

June 7, 2010

Parlando School for the Arts announces the following faculty positions:

Cello
Guitar
Early Childhood general music classes

Qualifications: Minimum Bachelors in Music is required. The ideal candidate is creative, flexible, innovative, and dedicated to teaching all levels and ages. Preference is given to teachers with experience and ability to teach multiple genres or ages/levels.

Position: Instructors are part-time, hourly with potential to grow to full-time with the right candidate.

Responsibilities: Teach private and group lessons as needed. Other courses (such as summer camps, classes and ensembles) are possible depending on expertise. Teachers need to maintain a high level of professional activity including performance on faculty recitals and outreach concerts. Faculty are expected to provide creative support for developing programs and curriculum in area of expertise.

Application: Send letter of interest and resume to Liz Dinwiddie, Director of Instrumental and Early Childhood Studios at liz@parlando.org. The application deadline is July 1, 2010 or until filled. Selected candidates will be invited to interview. An audition and teaching demonstration will be part of the interview process.

Parlando School for the Arts is Colorado's premier arts school where people of all ages and abilities come together to share the language of music and the arts.
